"She is one of the most genuine, caring and kind people I have met in my life! Others benefit not only from her genuine support and interest but also from her razor sharp business knowledge. She gives so much of herself to help because you can tell that she really wants you to do well. She regularly gives me more than I am expecting and I feel like she is my wing "woman". I feel blessed to be working with her and cannot recommend her highly enough as an amazing mentor."

- Kath Curry, Birmingham

"She REALLY knows her stuff when it comes to business and making it work for you. I learned things from Nicola about business and strategy I hadn't learned in 11 years of working with the Crown Prosecution Service."

- Brenda Gabriel, London

"I can't think of anything more I would want from a mentor. She lifts you up and helps you find power and resources from within that you didn't think you had. She invites you to see your true potential and then fights your corner while you make it happen. She knows her stuff and she doesn't just talk the talk, she walks the walk, making her the ideal role model. She treats you like an equal and it's fun working with her, yet it feels like you're in a meeting with a calm, wise Buddha. Her warmth and generosity are endless, she is a genuine diamond."

- Emma Middleton, Coventry

“Nic Huelin has an amazing insight into being a businesswoman. She listens to your greatest fears, worries and your highest walls to climb, whilst also talking to you about what you have already achieved. Then she works her magic and breaks those fears, worries and walls, so that they are not quite so scary because now you have the tools and support to conquer them all. Nic has a calmness and clarity with the way she works – I have been to lots of different “coaching” seminars and met various people over the years, but when I first met Nic I knew that she was the right person for me to work with. She has made me feel excited about the future ... and the best bit... Nic GENUINELY cares about me and my businesses – not something you come across very often.”

- Fiona Moonan, Birmingham

“Nicola is absolutely one of THE most genuine, caring women I have the honour of knowing and working with. Her ability to listen, understand and nurture coupled with her experience, knowledge and talent are unparalleled. This year has seen massive personal and business progress for me and I absolutely put it down to Nicola’s support and kindness”

- Sarah Thomas, Kent
